Baylor Athletic Communications

The Baylor University Athletic Communications staff will provide visiting teams with the final statistics using the NCAA Basketball Score form. Any special faxing requests should be given to the Athletic Communications contact upon arrival. Seating is available on press row for visiting media relations and media contacts. Following a brief cooling off period, visiting coaches and players should be available for interviews upon request. If you have specific Athletic Communications questions or special media needs, please call: Women's Basketball: Julie Bennett at 254-710-3042 and Men's Basketball: David Kaye at 254-710-4389.

Interview Policy

Baylor players and coaches will be available for interviews throughout the week except on game days. All interview requests must be made through the Athletic Communications office 24 hours in advance. On game days, interviews will be conducted approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Requested players and coaches will report to the media room in the Ferrell Center media room.

Credentials

Admittance to the media areas at the Ferrell Center is limited to working media only. No children or other non-media members will be admitted to the working areas. Credentials should be requested at least one day prior to the game.

Photographers

Photo credentials should be ordered as noted above. Only accredited photographers will be allowed to shoot the game from courtside upon presentation of the proper credentials issued through the Baylor Athletic Communications office. The NCAA and the Big 12 Conference only will allow working press in the designated photo areas as specified.

Radio

Seats are reserved for both Baylor and visiting radio crews on press row. Visiting radio seating is located across the court from the visiting team's bench.

Game Day Media Services

Media guides, programs, updated game notes, and statistics will be available in the media room prior to the game. Half-time box scores will be distributed to press row during the break, and a complete book consisting of a final box score, play-by-play, shot charts and halftime summary will be provided at the games conclusion. A fax machine and telephones will be made available by contacting the Athletic Communications contact. A light meal will be served before the game.

Athletic Communications Information & Staff

The Baylor University Athletic Communications staff will provide visiting teams with final, official statistics. Any special faxing requests should be given to the media relations representative prior to the conclusion of the contest. Credential requests should be directed to the athletic communications contact and sent via e-mail at least 24 hours in advance. Post-game interview procedures will be left to the discretion of the visiting team's media relations contact. Area code is 254 unless otherwise noted.
